LONGUE VUE GOLF CLUB

The Catholic Charities Annual Free Health Care Center Golf Classic, will be held at the renowned and historic Longue Vue Club in Verona. The Longue Vue Club sits on what was once known as "Martinsville", named after Thomas Martin, as well as several other pieces of land. Mr. Martin was a Revolutionary War veteran who was given the land through a Warrant granted by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on April 10, 1786. The land and Club are situated on 370 acres of ground that rests 200 feet above the Allegheny River, and is one of the most picturesque and prestigious clubs in Pittsburgh.
